LOCATION:

Set in a convenient location in Coldstream; the first Border town in Scotland and the original home of the Earl of Home whose estate, The Hirsell, offers lovely countryside wildlife walks as well as a cafe and craft shops. The town sits on the River Tweed, renowned for its salmon fishing, just over the Scottish Border to the North of the Cheviot Hills, offering a wide range of amenities which include pubs, shops, cafes, Community Centre, doctors and dentist surgeries. Coldstream lies approx. 15 miles from the East Coast railway station in Berwick-upon-Tweed and approx. 9 miles away from the Borders town of Kelso, both with a wider variety of amenities.

DESCRIPTION:

A charming and versatile Victorian terrace in the heart of Coldstream. This spacious three-bedroom terraced family home offers flexible living with two generous reception rooms on the ground floor, with the front room currently serving as a fourth bedroom. Set in a prime location overlooking Coldstream's historic market square, the property enjoys easy access to additional parking and a nearby recreational area with ample seating—perfect for enjoying the local atmosphere. Lovingly maintained and enhanced by its current owners, the house retains many appealing features, including an impressive staircase, high ceilings, and a unique, characterful layout. The accommodation is both practical and expansive, ideally suited to modern family life, benefiting from a ground floor shower room, breakfasting kitchen, family bathroom, gas central heating and double glazing throughout, ensuring comfort year-round. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that this delightful home has to offer.

EXTERNALLY:

Accessed directly from the pavement just off Coldstream's charming market square, this property enjoys a prime and picturesque setting. To the rear, a gated entrance from the Gowanlea area opens into a delightful patio-style garden, adorned with attractive perennial planted borders. There is a garden store outbuilding. Beyond the garden, there is access to a single garage offering both convenience and functionality.

SERVICES:

Mains Electricity, Gas, Water & Drainage.
