LOCATION:

Galashiels is a vibrant town in the Scottish Borders, known for its rich textile heritage and scenic surroundings. Once a hub for wool production, the town now blends its historical charm with modern amenities, including the Heriot-Watt University campus specialising in design and textiles. Galashiels is well-connected by the Borders Railway, offering easy access to Edinburgh, and serves as a gateway to the beautiful landscapes of the Scottish Borders, with plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities like walking and cycling. The town also hosts cultural events, including the annual Braw Lads' Gathering, celebrating its local history and community spirit.

DESCRIPTION:

A well-maintained maisonette flat spread across the first and second floors of a traditional stone-built property. The flat is accessed via external stone steps, with the entrance hallway leading to a spacious kitchen/living room, modern shower room and a staircase winding up to the attic level. The upper floor features one single and one double bedroom, both enhanced by dormer windows that add character and natural light. The property is presented in neat decorative order, benefiting from gas central heating and double glazing throughout. This maisonette flat would be an ideal investment opportunity or a perfect first-time home.

EXTERNALLY:

The property is accessed from Scott Street through a small vennel leading to the rear of the building. The external rear steps lead to the first-floor access door to the maisonette. There is a garden directly to the rear of the property which is relatively low maintenance. The garden is mainly paved with a small, planted area to the rear and could be easily enclosed if required.

SERVICES:

Mains Electricity, Gas, Water & Drainage.
