LOCATION:

Set in the popular small village of Gordon in the heart of the Scottish Borders, which has a pub / cafe, nursery, primary school and village hall. There is a Community Woodland which is a real asset to the village for walkers of all abilities. Gordon sits approx. 8 miles from Kelso and approx. 6 miles from Earlston both of which are much larger towns and offer a comprehensive range of amenities between them including supermarkets, boutique shops, doctors, dentists and a garden centre. Gordon is also within the catchment for the highly regarded Earlston High School. The village sits approx. 35 miles from Edinburgh and approx. 12 miles from The Waverley Rail Link at Tweedbank.

DESCRIPTION:

This unique stone-built semi-detached house, once a local village police station and officer's home, now exudes a cosy, welcoming atmosphere blending cottage charm with a touch of bohemian style. This three-bedroom family home has a floor area of 138 metres squared with a quirky layout and features solid fuel heating centred around a wood-burning stove, creating a warm focal point. Additionally, its Solar PV system generates a considerable return, adding sustainability to its character. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all the hidden extras and charm this property has to offer.

EXTERNALLY:

To the front of the property is off-street parking. The rear south-facing garden is fully enclosed with a gate accessing the bowling club. The garden is mainly laid to lawn with some mature bushes and trees and has a gravelled patio area with a Clematis covered pergola. There is a handy garden shed at the end of the garden, which is lined and has a workbench and electricity.

SERVICES:

Mains Electric, water & drainage. Solid fuel central heating. PV Solar Panels with FITs. The solar panels generated in excess of £1900 in 2024 and £1800 in 2023.
